

Jr.-Sr. Aces To Battle Area's Top Ranked

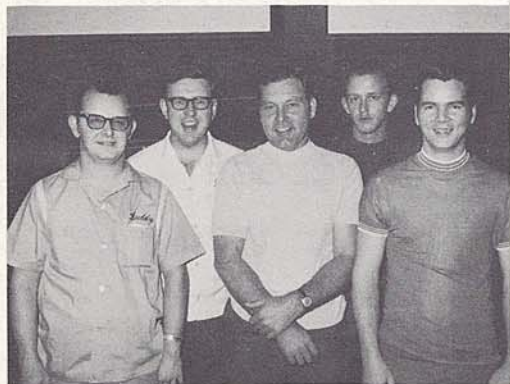

On Sunday, January 4, 1970, an exhibiton bowling match will take place between the top average bowlers from the Maryland Junior — Senior Travel League and five of the top ranked adult bowlers in the Washington, D. C. area.

Jim Robinette, the area's number one ranked bowler will head the adult team consisting of Mike Hahn, winner of last years invitational and Nations Capitol Singles tournaments, Elmer Breeden, the number two ranked bowler, Larry O'Neill fourth ranked bowler and Buddy Engleman who ranks sixth. Based on last years averages the team has a strength of 982.

Representing the Maryland Junior — Senior Travel League will its top five averagers. Bob Preston will captain the team and will be assisted by Don Davis, BOB Allison, Larry Roberts and Eddie LaCoste. The team has a playing strength over 900 so the match should prove interesting.

The event will take place at Fairlanes Wheaton Plaza at 2 P.M. area fans are invited to come and see the premier bowlers of today battle the stars of tomorrow.

Top ranked team (left) will consist of l to r: Buddy Engleman, Jim Robinette, Elmer Breeden, Mike Hahn and Larry O'Neill.

The Jr.-Sr. Aces (right) roster, l to r are: Bob Allison, Ed LaCost, Don Davis, Bob Preston and Larry Roberts.

