

Eads, Keyser Win Top Bowl America Awards

Bowlers from Bowl America centers Woodbridge and Kent took top honors in the Queen and Star of the Year competition sponsored by Bowl America and based on a pins-over-average score.

Marty Eads of Bowl America Woodbridge with a 96 average went far in front of her nearest rival with 102 pins over to win the color television set for Queen of the Year.

Chris Keyser, rolling with a 124 average from Bowl America Kent, banged out 110 pins over and walked off with a vacation for two in the Bahamas as his prize as Star of the Year.
