

JUNIOR VIRGINIA MASTERS

At Seminary Lanes on January 4, some of the area's top junior bowlers met in head-to-head team matches. PBA members and top locals, Dave Cohen, Larry O'Neill, Chuck Gannon, Bobby Holmes, Howie Partell, and Steve Sipe coached these fine young bowlers and helped to form the Junior Virginia Masters League. This League modeled after the much respected adult version, will instill in the bowlers a sense of professionalism, sportsmanship, and competitiveness. Professionalism in a sense of confidence of bowling ability. These bowlers will be shown how to adjust to varying lane conditions, for both strike and spare shooting; and will also be advised as to the best weight distribution as suited their own personal needs. The coaches, with their professional knowledge, will be available for coaching before, during, and after league play. Competition will be in the form of not only league play, but in exhibition matches with the Virginia Masters, and with top junior bowlers from other AJBC associations.

The first week of bowling included 28-200 games and 5-600 series:
Azlee Evans—212-228-209/649
Ray Schaffer—234-210/631
Thad Rand—279/610
Susie Brothers—236-200/609
Steve Hill—212-200/603
Brian Szamborski—246

Mark Dixon—233
Bryant Mehio—223
Terri Ball—220
Gary Marsengill—215
Al Franceschetti—213
Tom Claxton—213
Ricky Sadler—211
Vern Evans—209
Chris Mann—206
Graham Aylor—205
Terry Curtis—205
Vanessa Bengé—205
Terry Wiley—205
James Norris—204
Harold Willet—204
Marcus Watkins—202
Joe Daly—201

The League's Board of Directors will consist of the five coaches and the following:

President: Bobby Phipps
Sec/Treas: Vanessa Bengé
Sgt. at Arms: Vern Evans
Publicity Chairman: Nick Lawrence

Watch for upcoming exhibition matches, or stop by and see YOUR area's top junior bowlers show their skill in the nations #1 indoor activity

Sundays at 2:00 p.m.

... Nick Lawrence,
Publicity Chairman