BVL TOURNEY SET FOR MARCH

Joanne Kreiser, secretary-treasurer of the Morning Stars league at AMF Alexandria, speaks at the NCAUSBCA Annual Meeting. (See report on page 8.)

USBC QUEENS AND SENIOR QUEENS RETURN TO RENO IN 2014

BVL continues a proud tradition of providing recreation therapy programs for veterans with the announcement of the dates of the 67th Annual Veterans Bowling Tournament, which this year are March 4 through March 29. The tournament is open to all veterans connected with the VA Medical Center system, and is coordinated through recreation therapists on site at the facilities. This year's event will include nine separate divisions based on hospital size as well as physical and age limitations. The tournament also has two divisions for electronic bowling. Teams of five – with up to three alternates – bowl a total of 45 games during the month and submit scores on the BVL web site by April 15. All competitors receive a certificate of participation, and the top three teams in each division receive medals. The tournament was first introduced when U.S. troops were returning home from the battlefields of Europe and Asia and was conducted on the White House bowling lanes with President Truman on hand to confer awards. Since then, BVL has remained on the forefront of recreation therapy to help improve the emotional and physical health of America's heroes. See more about BVL's rich history of sports and arts programs for veterans at BowlforVeterans.org.

Women bowlers looking for top-level competition will have the chance to bowl in multiple events in one trip as Reno will play host to the USBC Queens and Senior Queens next year. The 2014 Queens and Senior Queens will be held at the National Bowling Stadium from June 27 to July 3. The Open Championships also will be held at the NBS in 2014, while Women's Championships takes place across town at the Reno-Sparks Convention Center. ... In related news, future USBC Open Championships sites include Syracuse, N.Y., in 2018, and Baton Rouge, La., in 2025. ... Meanwhile, for the Women's Championships: Baton Rouge (2017), Wichita, Kansas (2019), and Mobile, Alabama (2021). ... For more information about any USBC tournaments, visit BOWL.com/tournaments.

Her daughter is Hall of Famer Judy Edwards. ... PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE • ROBERT ASHLEY III

Heading down the home stretch

Those in attendance at this season's Annual Meeting of your association at Bowl America Gaithersburg elected Gene Mays, my successor, as well as other officers and directors who will lead this association in the 2013-2014 season (see page 8). If you were not able to attend, please make it a point to come next year.

The season is working its way down the home stretch with just several weeks remaining in the schedule for many leagues. It's time to start thinking ahead to next season—reviewing the things that went well, the things that might need improvement, and elect the officers for next season's league. Presidents need to continue their diligence in verifying the league account to ensure there will be no problems at the end of the season.

Are your league officers doing their job? In my recent visits to the centers, I've been witness to two members who paid their USBC fees at the start of the league season, but the fees had not been submitted to our office as late as mid-February. These are just some of the things to keep in mind when you elect your league officers.

Along with other board members, I will have the pleasure of representing your association at the upcoming USBC Convention and Annual Meeting in Reno, Nev. Different types of legislation will be discussed, from league rules to tournament rules to association policies (see page 2). If you have any questions or comments on these proposals, please do not hesitate to contact me or the association office. You can reach me by eMail at president@ncausbca.org or talk with me in person at the ongoing and upcoming tournaments. I look forward to hearing from you regarding the legislation or any other issues that concern you or your leagues.

May you strike out often and be spared of any splits.

USBC Women's Championships changes to four-player teams in 2014

ARLINGTON, Texas – The United States Bowling Congress Women's Championships will undergo a major change in 2014 by shifting to four-player teams, new divisions, and a new format.

In addition to the change to four-player teams from the traditional five, the USBC Women's Championships will return to an all-scratch format.

Teams will be divided into four divisions based on their combined averages, and there will be six average-based divisions for doubles, singles, and all-events.

The 2014 event will be held on 44

MANAGER'S MEMO • RONALD MCGREGOR

Secretaries need to check their spam folders

There are a few housekeeping items to be aware of as the season gets closer to the end for many leagues:

➤ League rosters are updated and returned to the secretary via eMail when possible; the subject line is "League RosterU" and a file titled "rptLeagueRosterPortrait.rtf" is attached. Secretaries: Please check your spam folders for this message.

➤ All members of your league must have a current membership; otherwise, games bowled may be subject to forfeit, and the bowlers risk suspension. The latest list of unpaid bowlers is available on our web site at ncausbca.org.

The Women's Championship Tournament is currently under way at AMF Annandale. Meanwhile, the Open Championship Tournament will begin the weekend of April 6-7 at Bowl America Fairfax (team) and Bowl America Falls Church (singles & doubles). There are still plenty of good slots available, so get your entries in soon. Tournament confirmations are sent via eMail when requested with the subject "Confirmation LetterU". They are sent via the postal service if no eMail address is given.

New to both tournaments this year are the Senior Singles and Senior All Events handicap prize categories for bowlers age 55 and older. The Sports Plus/Carmen Don Pro Shop in Alexandria generously provided each tournament with $1,000 of added prize money to apply to these senior divisions.

The weather is sometimes an issue during this time of the season. Here's a reminder to allow for a postponement if any weather-related issues arise.

Tournament Roundup

This year's event had an increase in bowlers in A Division (43 to 54) and B Division (60 to 79) but again declined in C Division (44 to 39). ... Bowl America Chantilly last hosted a finals in 2006, when the divisional winners were Allen Windsor, Eric Long, and John Woods Jr. ... After four rounds this year,

Michael Simpson

Michael Simpson of Woodbridge led the A Division by a resounding 246 pins. However, on the Wednesday afternoon before the finals, he felt a pain in his side. After difficult waiting room waits in Woodbridge and later that evening near Tysons Corner, he underwent surgery for an appendicitis, which curtailed his dreams of an Invitational title in his final season as a youth bowler. "While waiting for a doctor and again for the surgery," he said, "I was thinking about how I was going to miss bowling. It was really bad timing." Following the surgery, Simpson was told not to lift anything heavier than 10 pounds and to stay off the lanes for about six weeks. He is expected to recover in time to compete in the 600 Club Tournament of Champions on March 24. Simpson, who bravely appeared at the finals and was greeted fondly by many of those present, was awarded a $200 scholarship—the amount collected by each eighth-place finisher—by the tournament committee. ... Besides Simpson, four other bowlers repeated as final-round qualifiers: Dustin Mahmot, Conner Kolessides, Richie Hercules, and Quincy Johnson. ... The finals scores by A Division champion Kolessides (1,932) and third-place finisher Daniel Edwards (1,931) were the highest Round 5 totals since a 1,975 by 2009 winner Bobby Middleton Jr. ... Solid finals performances also by Nick Dean and by Robert Alston, who apparently loves the odd-numbered years, having also made the Top 8 in 2011 and 2009. ... The "Never Give Up Award" goes to Matthew Spause, who reached the B Division finals by just one pin, beginning the last day in last place, 107 pins behind the leader. However, he proceeded to win seven of eight matches and narrowly edged De'Andrew Clark for the title. ... A win by Clark would have been his second Invitational crown; he took C Division in 2010. ... Dylan Detraz finished strong in his 231-pin, wall-to-wall victory, closing with games of 243-237-237—and this was C Division! ... Keep an eye on Brandon Williams, who is very accurate and whose ball undoubtedly will gain additional power as he matures. When it all comes together, he'll be a factor. ... Thanks once again to Owen Robinson for serving as "door keeper" during the pre-finals photo session. He placed 18th in B Division.

Conner Kolessides receives Ted Gruszkowski Jr. Youth Star Award

Prior to the start of opening round of the Youth Invitational Scratch Singles Tournament at Bowl America Gaithersburg on January 19, it was announced that Conner Kolessides of Great Falls, Va., was selected as the 2013 recipient of the prestigious NCAUSBCA Ted Gruszkowski Jr. Youth Star Award, which is named in honor of the late association Hall of Fame member who was a strong supporter of area youth bowling.

Conner received a plaque, a $100 scholarship, and his name will appear on the plaque that contains the names of the nine previous award recipients.

He was born into a bowling family, with his dad and older brother serving as role models. From the time he could walk, Conner set up his little plastic bowling pins in the hallway and quickly learned the difference between a strike, a spare, and a split. When he could talk, he wanted to “bowl for real” at the bowling alley, which he did at age 2 at Bowl America Dranesville. When “officially” old enough, he started league play there, and by the time he was 7, he had a fingertip ball and a big hook.

Now 16, he holds a 238 average and has rolled two perfect games. He rolled his first 300 game—along with 19 consecutive strikes—at last year’s NCAUSBCA Youth Championship Tournament at Bowl America Bull Run during the doubles event that he won with his partner, Matthew Ritchie. Conner rolled his second 300 game at his home center, Bowl America Dranesville, last November.

Conner started competing in tournaments, and at age 10, earned his first scholarship award. In his very first 600 Club Tournament, he went on to win the 2009 Winter Doubles with Giovanni Ponce. This qualified him for the Tournament of Champions, where he advanced to match play, being one of the youngest bowlers to ever do so.

His other 600 Club titles include the 2012 Spring Singles and the 2012 Fall Doubles (with Richie Hercules), where Conner topped the field with his 749 series. In fact, last year, he won seven tournaments, including the 2nd Annual Chuck Collier Tournament, the Fourth of July Youth/Adult Tournament at Bowl America Bull Run, and two Sport Shot Challenge events.

Conner captured second-place honors at two Vern Burke tournaments, and he also finished in the Top 8 in the

A Division at the 2011 and 2012 Youth Invitational Scratch Singles tournaments.

Conner has medaled in the Virginia Commonwealth Games, making him eligible to compete in this summer’s national event to be held in Hershey Park, Pennsylvania.

This past summer, Conner experienced his first North Pointe Jr. Gold National Championship event in Indiana, finishing in the top third of his field and placing highest among area competitors. He already qualified for this year’s competition.

At every competitive event he has entered, Conner has maintained his composure, a high code of conduct, respect and admiration for tournament officials and his bowling peers, and exemplary sportsmanship. He has willingly participated in two bowling clinics offered by fellow bowler Malcolm James and has occasionally helped his current coach, Shelley Huss, with other youth bowlers, sharing his time and talent, but mostly his enthusiasm, to promote the sport of youth bowling.

The Best Bowling Tip I Ever Received

By Karla Pereira

The best bowling tip I ever received was from the late Bob Pendergraft and also from Norbert Taylor. Although they worked with me to improve my game at separate times, I asked them the same question: How do I play the lanes when I have to move inside? The answer: Tilt the lanes.

Since I don't hook the lanes, moving inside seemed impossible. However, they both explained that I can play inside the same way I play down 10; it's now just a straight line at an angle. I was a bit dubious at first, but as time has gone by and I've bowled tournaments where I had to play across the fourth arrow, it has made perfect sense.

And more importantly, it has worked!

Karla Pereira, the association's No. 5-ranked woman bowler in the 2010-2011 season, scored 749—the highest series by a female in the recent NCAUSBCA Mixed Scratch Doubles Tournament.

If using current average, a league sheet showing average as of May 31, 2013 must be provided to Tournament Officials at check-in. If bowler does not have a yearbook or current average and competed in a summer league, that average, of at least 21 games, may be used provided it is verified at the tournament office.
