NCAUSBCA MAY 2018 FUND-RAISER OFFERS 93 CHANCES TO WIN

As many NCAUSBCA members know, your local association now provides nearly all awards. To help defray the cost of local awards and other programs that can benefit all members, NCAUSBCA will offer each day in May 2018 an opportunity for individuals to cash through numbers selected in the daily Virginia Lottery "Pick 3" game. In fact, every $10 raffle ticket has three chances to win daily -- meaning a monthly total of 93 chances! -- with a minimum winning amount of $15. Tickets are available through your lane representative as well as the NCAUSBCA office in Largo, Md.

USBC RELEASES RESEARCH STUDY ON BOWLING TECHNOLOGY

NEW THIS SEASON!

Only three Championship Tournament games are needed by league bowlers to qualify for the new NCAUSBCA Official Average Leaders listings.

For more than two years, the United States Bowling Congress has examined technology in bowling to determine its impact on the sport. The examination included in-depth research by the USBC Equipment Specifications and Certifications team, independent surveys with participants, center owners, and pro shop operators, along with focus groups of proprietors and pro shop owners, and a summit of bowling leaders. The Bowling Technology Study – An Examination and Discussion on Technology's Impact in the Sport of Bowling, examines bowling balls and the lanes, with research on the oil absorption rates of coverstocks, how balance holes affect bowling balls, and the impact of Radius of Gyration (RG) and Differential RG. It also includes a league simulation study to have a better understanding of oil depletion and ball reaction for bowlers during competition. Go to BOWL.com/Bowling-TechnologyStudy to access the Bowling Technology Study, plus videos and additional information.

YOUTH HONOR

Kesean Waldon

As he advances in his bowling career, Kesean Waldon of Alexandria, Va., likely always will remember he was among six youth bowlers selected by the International Bowling Campus Youth Committee to receive the David Dahms Sportsmanship Award following his participation this past summer in the Junior Gold Championships. Given to competitors who best exemplified sportsmanship, leadership, positive attitude, and enthusiasm during the event held in Cleveland, the David Dahms Sportsmanship Award was presented to one male and one female participant in each division. Selections were based on nominations received during the competition. Waldon ("15 and Under" division) received a $500 scholarship. The award is named in honor of Dahms, who was instrumental in the development of the Junior Gold program.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE • WILLIE H. GRAVES JR.

Can you answer these important "end of season" questions?

Many winter leagues will come to a close in April or May. As a league member, you should make sure your league has answers to the following questions:

- Has your league completed a financial audit? If not, why not?
- Has your team captain received financial statements from your treasurer? If not, why not?
- Does your league have an approved prize list? If not, why not?
- Does your league know how to handle payouts for teams with the same won-lost records?

You should be watchful for additional information on upcoming events on the association's Web site, ncausbca.org.

- Does your league know how to determine the first-place team when there are multiple teams on top with the same won-lost record?

Your local association is still taking donations in support of BVL. During the next two months, your lane representatives will intensify their requests for support of BVL in your leagues. Your association still aims to become the leading

EARN $5,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS

In memory of one of bowling's greatest writers, an academic scholarship has been created to honor Chuck Pezzano. If you are a student who is likely to pursue full or part time employment writing about bowling, visit our website to see how you can earn up to $5,000 in scholarships.

Application Deadline is April 30.

APPLY AT WWW.BOWLINGMEDIA.ORG

Nominations now open for IBMA Chuck Pezzano Media Scholarship

The International Bowling Media Association (IBMA) is now accepting applications for the IBMA 2018 Chuck Pezzano Scholarship. The scholarship is awarded to either a senior in high school or collegiate student who shows a commitment to writing about the sport of bowling. The ideal applicant will be someone who plans to continue covering the sport in either a part-time or full-time capacity after graduation.

The $5,000 scholarship, which is presented by the Billiard & Bowling Institute of America, was created more than a decade ago to help identify tomorrow's bowling writers among today's youth.

"In addition to providing a worthy student the scholarship," said Keith Hamilton, president of IBMA, "the message that a career in bowling journalism is available is critical to ensure the continuation of dedicated journalists writing about the sport."

The deadline to apply is April 30, and interested applicants can go to www.bowlingmedia.org/scholarships for more information and to submit an application.

James Sullivan, the 2017 Chuck Pezzano Scholarship recipient and a freshman journalism major at Fordham University, said, "The scholarship has been a tremendous help to my family and me as I go through my first year of college, and it is still an honor to have received it." He serves as associate sports editor for the Fordham Press.

Tinsley elected president at Annual Meeting

Graves, Garrett secure vice president positions

Members attending the 12th Annual Membership Meeting of the Nation's Capital Area USBC Association held February 25 at the NCAUSBCA office building in Largo, Md., elected Michael Tinsley, Seat Pleasant, Md., president for a two-year term beginning August 1, 2018. He currently serves as first vice president.

Diane Garrett

Meanwhile, Willie H. Graves Jr., Mitchellville, Md., who became acting president upon the death of Larry Gonzales on October 22, 2015 and has served as president for the past two seasons, was elected second vice president. Diane Garrett, Forestville, Md., was reelected fourth vice president.

Directors elected for a two-year term ending July 31, 2020 by majority vote included incumbents Ruth Adams, Montgomery Village, Md.; Andre Andrews, Washington, D.C.; Sondra Blakey, Forestville, Md.; James Butler, Mitchellville; Tom Dale, Stafford, Va.; Dwight Franklin, Largo; Adam Mitchell, Ashburn, Va.; Dominic Parham, Landover Hills, Md.; Michael Riley Jr., Alexandria, Va.; and Helen Toms, Adelphi, Md. (Adams, Andrews, Dale, and Parham will continue as youth directors.)

Virginia State delegates elected for the 2018-2019 season include Jane Andrews, D.C.; Robert Ashley III, Centreville, Va.; Judith Butler, Hyattsville, Md.; Andrea Dale, Stafford; Ronald McGregor, Temple Hills, Md.; and Kirk S. Williams, District Heights, Md.

Delegates elected to the 2019 USBC Convention included Andre Andrews; Jane Andrews; Robert Ashley III; Connie Brown, Alexandria; James Butler; Andrea Dale; Tom Dale; Diane Garrett; Willie H. Graves Jr.; Earl Jones, Hyattsville, Md.; Eugenia McDonald, Capitol Heights, Md.; Ronald McGregor; Greta Pearson, Fort Washington, Md.; and Clayton Stone, Alexandria.

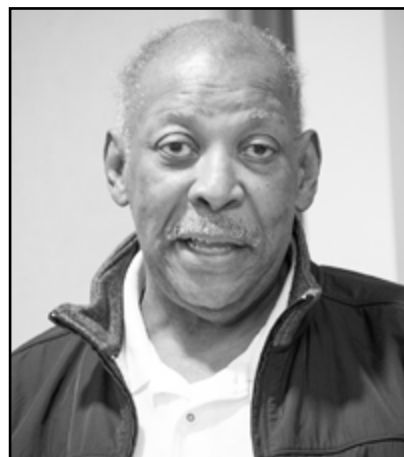

The vote by attendees on each of the eight USBC 2018 proposed amendments mirrored decisions made during the morning meeting of the NCAUSBCA board (see page 10).

A few members mentioned a problem of association information not being passed from secretaries to bowlers or from lane directors to bowlers. Even though materials are placed on a control counter doesn't necessarily mean the bowlers will see it—news about NCAUSBCA-sponsored tournaments, for example. Information about “upcoming events” appears in every issue of BOWL Magazine, related content appears on ncausbca.org, and those who have “liked” our Facebook page will receive notice of all important association tournaments and functions. The board welcomes suggestions about how we can communicate better and get information to the bowling community.

For the past several annual gatherings, contests and other fund-raising activities have been conducted. Diane Garrett was this year's 50/50 winner, and Dominic Parham took home a 40-inch television.

Upon the start of the 2018-2019 season, Michael Tinsley will become the eighth individual to serve as NCAUSBCA president.

Even though he could have run for another term as president, Willie H. Graves Jr. instead chose to run for second vice president.

During the discussion of the USBCA proposed amendments, Tom Dale explains what an “at-large director” is.

Ken Larkin (right) confers with Robert Ashley III, who again this year conducted the legislative session.

PERSPECTIVE • HARRY LADSON

Lighten up, parents!

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following column first appeared in the March 1993 issue of this publication.

"Did you make the two-board adjustment like I said?"

"Did you square your shoulders to the target?"

Sound like a bowler talking to himself? Not exactly.

Try a parent imparting his wisdom or knowledge to his child during tournament play.

Throughout this year's Vir-Mar District Invitational Tournament, I followed the bowlers from center to center, realizing that it was not only the youths competing but oftentimes the parents competing through their youths as well.

The thought of competing in a singles, elimination-type tournament is pressure enough for most of the youths, whose ages ranged from 14 to 21. Adding to the enormous pressure were parents demanding that those youths perform flawlessly.

Lighten up, parents!

For those of you who have never been in these shoes, please realize that it is not as easy as it seems.

And for those of you who have, face the facts: You've had your turn.

The main criteria for participating in the Invitational is to average 150 or better in an area YABA-sanctioned league. For most youths, this tournament is their first taste of self-imposed pressure—obtaining the average and then waiting for the invitation are real anxious moments for the young kegglers.

Andrews, Hansen honorees of 2018 Ted Gruszkowski Jr. Youth Star Award

Andre Andrews and Joey Hansen are the 2018 recipients of the prestigious NCAUSBCA Ted Gruszkowski Jr. Youth Star Award, which is named in honor of the late association Hall of Fame member who was a strong supporter of area youth bowling. The announcement of this year's winners took place January 21 at Crofton Bowling Centre during the NCAUSBCA 49th Annual Youth Invitational Scratch Singles Tournament.

The award winners, honored for their bowling achievement and/or service to youth bowling, each were presented with a plaque and $200 in scholarship funds, which will be administered through the USBC SMART program. In addition, their names appear on the plaque that contains the names of the 22 previous award recipients.

ANDRE ANDREWS • Washington, D.C.

Even though his dad, sisters, brothers, and aunt also grew up in a bowling environment, Andre Andrews's interest was not peaked until he was 11 years old. His first league was the Guys and Dolls, and he advanced all the way to the Teenpinners at AMF Capital Plaza.

Bowling didn't come naturally to Andre, since he had to make adaptations to bowl. He and his mother both realized that having his own equipment would help his game, and he became fully vested and interested in the sport and has been bowling ever since. Andre left Capital Plaza, joined the Silver Hill Strikers, and he currently bowls at Potomac Lanes. His current book average is 146, with a high game of 200 at Capital Plaza and top series of 507 at Potomac Lanes.

Andre always has enjoyed being a part of anything that has to do with bowling. He takes advantage of every opportunity to watch, compete, and he helps in any capacity he can. Andre has unselfishly given of his time to assist and support the activities of the NCAUSBCA, helping with 50/50 raffles at the Open, Women's, and Senior Championship tournaments, helping with Ways and Means, brackets, and even collecting score sheets at the Youth Invitational Scratch Singles Tournament.

He has attended the association's annual Hall of Fame Induction & Dinner Celebration along with his mother for at least 15 years and attends the annual association meetings for both youth and adults, both local and Virginia State. He has bowled in the Vern Burke, Adult/Youth, Youth City, and Youth Virginia State tournaments. He also has bowled in the Youth Sweepers and Youth/Adult Holiday Doubles. He is a member of the TNBA and bowls in their Eastern Regional Tournament. Andre has helped his aunt, Eugenia McDonald, with the D.C.'s Finest Tournament for the past eight years, verifying averages from other associations as well as collecting and distributing score sheets and helping with 50/50 and bowling ball raffles.

Not only does Andre participate in local bowling activities, he enjoys traveling and learning about bowling. He has attended at least five national conventions and today serves as a director for NCAUSBCA and also has been elected as a delegate to attend the USBC Convention.

When Andre was not bowling, he participated in robotics in high school and enjoyed being able to watch the competitions, continuing to support his high school annually. Andre was valedictorian of his middle school class and ranked fourth in high school. He now attends the University of the District of Columbia Community College, majoring in accounting.

Andre exemplifies all the qualities of service to the association and its youth programs. He has the determination and willingness to succeed in everything he does, striving to conquer and overcome any obstacles. Andre is determined to be the best he can be, no matter what it is, despite his limitations.

His ultimate goal was to achieve the 150 average needed to participate in the Youth Invitational Tournament, for which he successfully accomplished in 2018. His next goal is to implement a Junior Leaders Bowling Program.

All of the above qualities merit Andre Andrews the NCAUSBCA Ted Gruszkowski Jr. Youth Star Award.

JOEY HANSEN • Bristow, Virginia

Joey Hansen, 18, currently is a freshman at Northern Virginia Community College and majors in computer science. He excels in school, having been accepted into the Gifted and Talented Program in high school, and he has received the U.S. Presidential Academic Achievement Award for demonstrating academic excellence. Due to his academic achievement of earning a 3.5 grade point average, he is both lettered in academics and was accepted into the National Society of High School Scholars.

Joey is committed to involvement in his community by volunteering weekly on the Welcome Team at The Life Church, Manassas. In this role, he greets church members for Sunday morning church service and assists with setting up for the following service.

Joey Hansen

He is also a Junior Staff Representative with Creating the Difference (CtD). Joey is a shining example of the CtD Company core values of Positive Thinking, Follow Your Passion, Focus on Solutions, Seek Wisdom.

Joey, who began bowling at age 10, has an impressive record, including a book average of 224, while currently averaging 228. He has two certified 300 games, and his highest sanctioned set is 799 on games of 247, 263, and 289.

Joey qualified for and attended the Junior Gold Championships from 2013-2016 and has also attended the Danny Wiseman Scholarship Tournament the past few years. Last year, Joey placed 10th in the Invitational, eighth in the NCAUSBCA 600 Club Tournament of Champions, and third in November's NCAUSBCA 600 Club Doubles. He also has qualified for the past two 600 Club Tournament of Champions. In April 2016, Joey had the opportunity to participate in a pro-am, bowling with and being coached by professionals, which was an impactful experience for him. This past summer, his team finished first in the Youth Draft League.

This past season, Joey bowled both of his perfect games, traveled to a Pennsylvania Junior Bowlers Tournament, made the cut for the first time at Danny Wiseman, and won the Youth Doubles Tournament at Bowl America Bull Run with Sam Anderson.

Joey's high level of academic achievement, extracurricular activities, church involvement, and close-knit family all require a significant amount of time and energy to which he steadfastly devotes. In addition to all of these important commitments, Joey consistently maintains a deep and far-reaching dedication to bowling, practicing weekly, maintaining involvement on a travel league since 2013, participating in multiple tournaments throughout the year, and making the time to assist younger bowlers. He continues to hone his bowling skills in a positive and enthusiastic manner.

Joey Hansen exemplifies the commitment, discipline, and passion for which the NCAUSBCA Ted Gruszkowski Jr. Youth Star Award stands.

The actual tournament moves the pressure element to another level. The youths are now faced with competing against peers with the same general average and performing at a level that will allow them to advance to the next round.

Then the pressure mounts again as the competition becomes more intense. Advancement to the next three rounds and the finals becomes the top priority.

Add this to the self-imposed pressure the constant, “You’ve got to....” from the parents, and you’ve set the stage for poor performance or, in some cases, no performance from the pressured youths. The frustration that appears due to missed spares manifests itself in tears, kicked bowling bags, and the ultimate: elimination from the competition.

The thrill of victory and the agony of defeat are both measured not by whether you win or lose but how the game was played. For these fantastic youths, it is beneficial—first and foremost—that they have a good time.

So parents: At the next tournament or league session, try relieving some of the pressure on the youths by stressing the importance of having fun first.

The author, who served many years as a youth coach, is a past recipient of the Greater Washington Bowling Senate’s James “Sonny” Steward Award for his numerous contributions to the sport of bowling.
