New squad schedule announced for USBC Open Championships through 2024

LAS VEGAS — The United States Bowling Congress recently announced that a new squad schedule will be put into place for the next three editions of the USBC Open Championships, beginning in 2022.

The change was a result of tracking start and finish times during the 2021 USBC Open Championships, along with bowler feedback during a variety of daily schedules in recent years. The adjustments are being made with on-time squads and bowler experience as the top areas of focus.

The new schedule will eliminate the late-night doubles and singles squad and end each day with a combination squad that will use half the facility for team competition and half for doubles and singles.

Team bowling in 2022, 2023, and 2024 will take place at 2 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. (combo), and doubles/singles squads will be held at 7 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 6 p.m., and 9:30 p.m. (combo). The event will continue to feature two oil patterns—one for the team event and one for doubles/singles—and fresh oil for every squad.

BOWLERO CORP. TO ACQUIRE BOWL AMERICA

Area bowlers woke on the morning of May 28 to news that Bowl America was going to be acquired by New York-based Bowlero Corp., the largest operator of bowling centers in North America. Many locals had wondered aloud what would happen to the Alexandria-based chain following the October 14, 2019 death of President Leslie Goldberg, 89, son of Bowl America founder and NCAUSBCA Hall of Famer C. Edward Goldberg. Bowl America, which opened its first center, Shirley, in 1958, currently operates 17 centers, including nine in NCAUSBCA's jurisdiction, with other locations in Baltimore, Richmond, and Jacksonville, Florida. Bowlero owns more than 300 bowling centers as well as the Professional Bowlers Association. "Bowlero Corp. is committed to delivering a world-class bowling experience to the 28 million-plus guests we serve each year and are thrilled to welcome Bowl America's 17 centers to our portfolio," said Tom Shannon, Bowlero Corp. CEO.

STARR SHINES AT JUNIOR GOLD CHAMPIONSHIPS

At the recent Junior Gold Championships in Indianapolis, Ind., Kayla Starr, 14, of Crofton, Md., who placed second among 298 competitors in the U15 Girls Division, earned a $6,500 scholarship as well as a spot on the Junior Team USA's Developmental Team. In 2019, Starr won the D Division of the NCAUSBCA Youth Invitational Scratch Singles Tournament, and she followed the next season with a fourth-place finish in the B Division. ... Meanwhile, in the Elimination Bracket of the U18 Boys Division, James Bennett, Huntingtown, Md., fell two games short of reaching the TV Finals, placing fifth ($3,000 scholarship). PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE • DARRON MAYES

*Thanks to all who supported me
this season*

Greetings bowlers,

I pray all is well with you and yours. We are quickly approaching the end of my first year as president. I have to admit, this position has been much more challenging than I anticipated. I've learned a lot and made a lot of mistakes.

I must give a shout out to Ron McGregor, the backbone of the association, as he works hard to keep this ship afloat. I thank the office staff and the board for also keeping the bowlers our main focus. I thank the bowlers I've encountered in the centers who have wished me well. We have a long way to go, and we will continue to work together.

I would like to thank all who participated in the Annual Membership Meeting. Covid has certainly caused numerous changes in how business is handled. Although it seems that COVID may be coming to end, the bowling community will never be the same. I welcome any suggestions towards to the improvement and betterment of the association.

Please check the Web site and your centers for tournament applications. Please stay safe, and I'll see you on the lanes.

Since the new schedule will limit the maximum number of teams per day to 84, the 2022 tournament will be extended by two weeks and allow for a capacity of more than 10,600 teams. It will run from March 12-July 16 (last team date), which is 128 consecutive days of competition. If demand warrants, the tournament can be extended as far as July 31.

Captains of teams already signed up for the 2022 Open that will be affected by the time changes will be notified by eMail.

The Open Championships will return to the South Point Bowling Plaza in 2022 and 2024, and the 2023 event will be held at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno, Nevada.

"We took a close look at the information we've collected during the 2021 Open Championships, and after making some squad adjustments for this year, we felt it made sense to look ahead to upcoming events, too," USBC Executive Director Chad Murphy said. "The squad durations have been consistent, so we felt comfortable making this change. We aim for the best possible bowler experience, and being on-time is a big part of that."

The success of the new daily schedule will be evaluated in the coming years, and adjustments may be made again before the 2025 tournament in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

MANAGER'S MEMO • RONALD MCGREGOR

Bowling is back in full force this summer

Bowling is back in full force this summer. Summer league signups have far outpaced any summer in recent memory. Bowlers I have spoken with are glad to be back bowling and enjoying themselves again for a change. COVID is not gone by any means, but for those who have gotten vaccinated, it has been a great sense of relief, not to mention getting out of the house and staying clear of desert and other comfort foods.

As a reminder, please make sure your summer averages are submitted to the office because for some, this will be the average they will use in the upcoming tournament season.

As a reminder, please make sure your summer averages are submitted to the office because for some, this will be the average they will use in the upcoming tournament season.

Speaking of tournaments, you know doubt know that we have not been able to hold the NCAUSBCA Open, Women's, and Youth Championship tournaments as well as the Mixed Tournament in Support of BVL for, in some cases, two seasons. I am happy to report that we plan to get them all in, starting in November with our 39th Annual Senior Tournament at Bowl America Fairfax, followed by the BVL Mixed in December. The Open and Women's events will be held in February, and this season we will also host the Virginia State Women's and Open tournaments. In short, you will have many opportunities to get your fill of competition and all without adding any travel $$$.

I have fielded a few questions from secretaries regarding officer elections for the fall season. If you did not have elections due to the shortened season or did not bowl this season at all, USBC recommends the same officers hold the positions until elections are held when you have your league organization meeting.

NCAUSBCA recently held its 15th Annual Membership meeting on Zoom, and you can read about it on page 8. If you are interested in attending the USBC Convention in Las Vegas in April of 2022, we do have delegate spots yet unfilled. If this is something that piques your interest, please email me at manager@ncausbca.org.

As you prepare to sign up for the Fall season, please remember to include COVID protocols in your league rules. COVID is

Holton, Butler move up in vice president positions after election by members at NCAUSBCA Annual Meeting

Garrett, Graves, Mays begin new season as directors

Nation's Capital Area USBC Association members attending the 15th Annual Membership Meeting conducted online for the first time via Zoom on the evening of July 14 elected Ronald Holton, Clinton, Md., and James Butler, Bowie, Md., for respective two-year terms as first and third vice president. Each currently serves as second and fifth vice president, respectively.

Directors elected to a two-year term ending July 31, 2023 include Jane Andrews and Gene Mays of the District; Ja'Sean Billings, Suitland, Md.; Phyllis Bourque, La Plata, Md.; Luis Drakes, Laurel, Md.; Noel Dysart, Adelphi, Md.; Diane Garrett, Forestville, Md.; Willie Graves Jr., Mitchellville, Md.; Brenda McDowell, District Heights, Md.; Evan Ruffini, Ashburn, Va.; James B. Stewart, Hyattsville, Md.; and Samuel Wolde, Waldorf, Md.

Terms for those elected begin August 1, 2021.

Individuals elected via separate ballot to serve as delegates to the United States Bowling Congress 2022 Annual Meeting include Jane Andrews; Phyllis Bourque; James Butler; Diane Garrett; Willie Graves Jr.; Ronald McGregor, Temple Hills, Md.; and Evan Ruffini.

On another separate ballot, members elected Ja'Sean Billings; Sonya Butler, D.C.; Andrea Dale, Stafford, Va.; Diane Garrett; Ronald McGregor; and Michael Whitted, Upper Marlboro, Md.; to serve as delegates to the Virginia State USBC.

FILE PHOTOS

Following his election by members at the NCAUSBCA Annual Meeting, Ron Holton (left), NCAUSBCA's current Second Vice President, will advance to the First VP spot on August 1, 2021, the first day of the 2021-2022 season. Meanwhile, Fifth Vice President James Butler will become Third VP.

The closing of several area bowling centers in recent years that in part has resulted in a membership decline brought forth a bylaws proposal that would reduce the maximum size of the association's board of directors from 38 to 28 while lowering the number of vice presidents from five to four in the 2021-2022 season and to three the following season. Members approved the proposal via a separate ballot.

First Vice President Willie Graves Jr. served as chair and moderator of the meeting, filling in for President Darron Mays, who was unable to attend.

still circulating, and thus it is a good idea to have a plan for dealing with the situation if it arises.

As I said earlier, I am pleased to see how many came out to bowl this summer, and that hopefully bodes well for the 2021-2022 season. There are no surprises as far as rules go. Perhaps you may not have bowled this season at all and still have a few bowling balls with a balance hole. If so, you will need to have it plugged. The membership dues are still $24.00 for a standard membership; this affords the most bang for the buck and includes the summer season.

Please continue to check out our Web page, and if you have liked us on Facebook, you are already enjoying all of the updates on upcoming association events.

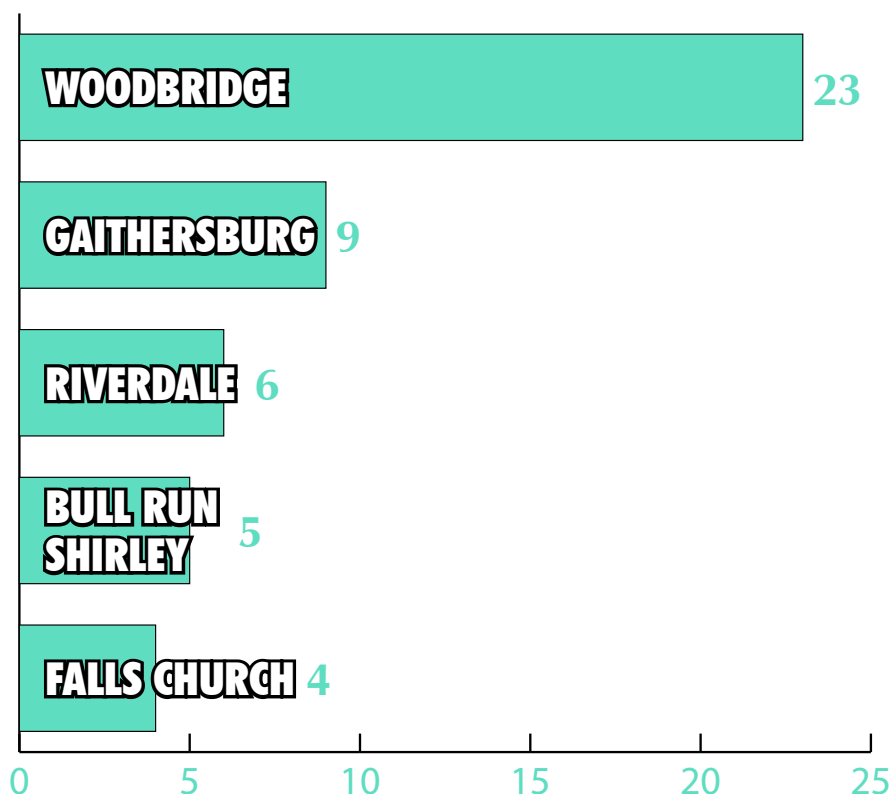

Enjoy, let's hope for a trouble-free bowling season.

JUDI BUTLER

Judi Butler served as a director with the Washington, D.C. Area Women's Bowling Association beginning in April 2002 before becoming one of the original NCAUSBCA directors following the NCABA / WDCAWBA / Vir Mar District YABA merger in 2006, continuing in her position through 2018. For the first time in over a year, she is back on the lanes, participating in summer leagues at AMF Capital Plaza and Crofton Bowling Centre. Not long after recently competing in the DC's Finest Mixed Handicap Tournament at Crofton, Butler revealed to editor Bob Cosgrove some of her favorites.
