Traditions Bowling Classic - Baltimore - Rules -

1. Columbia 300 Traditions Bowling Classic is open to all bowlers, male and female, including PBA members unless PBA member is currently tour exempt (2006-07 season) or has won a PBA National Tour title after January 1, 2000.
2. Bowling balls randomly checked throughout the tournament. Balls must comply with all USBC specifications. Any ball not in compliance will result in bowler disqualification and forfeiture of prize monies.
3. 1 of every 6 paid entries from each Qualifying Squad will advance to Cashers Round.
4. Top 4 combined scores from all Qualifying Squads for female bowlers and bowlers age 45 and over advance to Cashers Round. Qualifying Squads are comprised of three games.
5. 1 lane courtesy observed.
6. Only payments postmarked by November 20, 2006 for the Saturday, December 2nd squad at 10:00 AM are eligible for the discounts advertised. ENTRIES ACCEPTED ON-SITE.
7. Cashers Round is comprised of two games. Pinfall does not carry over.
8. It is bowlers' responsibility to verify their advancement to Cashers and Championship rounds. Failure to show by completion of second frame constitutes disqualification and forfeiture of all prize monies.
9. Championship Round bracket comprised of placing between four and six bowlers per pair with a maximum of 16 bowlers. Top two scores from each pair advance to next round until four bowlers remain.
10. Championship Round comprised of one game. Ties broken via one-ball, sudden-death roll-off.
11. Employees of Columbia Industries, its agents, and their immediate relatives are ineligible to compete.
12. Acts of God, war, or catastrophe, as determined by Tournament Director, will result in return of all entry fees.
13. Entrants agree to hold Columbia Industries, Inc. harmless for any theft or injury suffered during the TBC.
14. All decisions of Tournament Director are final, including but not limited to, bowler eligibility, equipment, conduct, and any other issues arising.
