

Tommy Delutz Jr. wins PBA regional at Shippensburg, Pa.

Rich Wolfe only local casher

May 1, 2002 – Tommy Delutz Jr. of Flushing, N.Y., picked up his 11th career regional title last weekend at Park Lanes in Shippensburg, Pa. Delutz, who qualified fourth in the 96-man field, moved to the lead by the midpoint of Sunday's match play finals as a result of an 827 three-game series just prior to the break. He continued his torrid pace in the afternoon session en route to a 12-4 match play record and a 237 tournament average. He wound up with a 174-pin margin of victory over Tim Criss of Bel Air, Md.

Delutz picked up $2,200 for the win, while Criss earned $1,150 for his runner-up finish. Baltimore's Danny Wiseman and Rudy Kasimakis of Gouldsboro, Pa., followed, while James Wallace of N. Babylon, N.Y. placed fifth.

The weekend was far from routine, as a power failure during Friday's practice resulted in a power spike when the electricity was restored. The entire computer system was destroyed as a result, and Friday's sweeper was canceled. For Saturday's qualifying rounds, proprietor Jim Salisbury and staff rounded up volunteers, and scores were kept by hand.

"I guess we'll have to call this one a retro regional," quipped Salisbury after Sunday's finals.

The scoring pace was high, as it took an average of 216 to make it to Sunday's finals and an average of 204 to earn a check. Nick Miseno of Amsterdam, N.Y., and Kasimakis rolled the tournament's only 300 games.

The Eastern Region is off until May 17-19 when it returns to Hoe Bowl Orange Lanes in Walden, N.Y. The next PBA action in the region begins May 4 when the seniors compete at Berks Lanes in Sinking Spring, Pa.
