
Chapman wins Masters at Seminary

Top seed Anthony Chapman of Landover defeated Mark Glover of Woodbridge 204-180 to capture the $700 top prize in the Nation's Capital Masters Scratch Singles Tournament March 17 at Fair Lanes Seminary.

In earlier stepladder action, Glover defeated Bobby Hall II of Landover 236-188; Glover defeated John Murphy, Chesapeake, Md. 213-210; Glover defeated Bill Kaelin, Herndon 256-206.

Glover earned $375; Kaelin, $200; Murphy, $150; and Hall $100.

Other cashers: No. 6, Magic Gray, Suitland (1,284 for six games), $95; 7, Al Franceschetti, Clinton (1,279), $90; 8, Tony Walton, D.C. (1,278), $85; 9, Rod Cahow, Springfield (1,246), $80; 10, Tim Colley, Alexandria (1,245), $75; 11, Richard Ridge, Manassas (1,244), $70; 12, Russell Rose, Fredericksburg (1,242), $65; 13, Jim Robinette, Woodbridge (1,241), $60; 14, Rick Coulson, Dumfries, Va. (1,239), $55; 15, Jimmy Jones, Waldorf (1,230), $50; 16, Bobby Hall Sr., Landover (1,229), $47; 17, Pedro Carrasco, Arlington (1,222), $45; 18, David Reed, Clinton (1,219), $42; 19, Lewis Twine, Waldorf (1,213), $40; 20, Stuart Ramsey, Ashburn, Va. (1,208), $35; 21, Kendra Cameron, Gambrills, Md. (1,197), $30.

High senior out-of-the-money: Willie Jelks, Alexandria (1,186), $30. High woman out-of-the-money: Berlin Myers, Hyattsville (729 for four games), $30.