

Junior Mini-Bio

Name: Anthony Wheeler

Residence: Suitland

Birthdate: March 28, 1980

School: sophomore at Morgan State University, majoring in civil engineering

League: Silver Hill Strikers at AMF Marlow Heights

Pets: a dog, "Midnight" (black Japanese akita)

Self-portrait: carefree and silly

Most treasured possession: my bowling equipment

Fault I've conquered: having an attitude during bowling

Current biggest fault: cracking my toes

Pet peeve: someone who talks to me while I'm on the approach

Greatest fear: dying

Best bowling tip: Jim Snow told me to close my hand and keep my thumb in the air to convert my 7-pins.

Bowling goal: to stay known, win Invitational Tournament

Life goals: Amusement park architect, particularly roller coasters; pro bowler

Person I'd like to be for one day: Mike Aulby

Historical figure I'd like to meet: Thurgood Marshall

Inspiration: Jesus

If I had $100 to blow, I would: buy more bowling equipment

Motto: Always think before reacting

FAVORITES

Meal: steak, mashed potatoes, and broccoli

Snack: Nacho Cheese Doritos

Dessert: cheesecake

Cereal: Cookie Crisp

Beverage: water

Place to eat: Bennigan's

Store: Hecht's—it has a variety of clothes!

Hobbies: tennis and swimming

TV network: Animal Planet

Movie: "The Nutty Professor"

Color: Navy blue

Season: winter

Summertime activity: bowling

Vacation city: Inglewood, New Jersey

Pro bowlers: Mike Aulby and Aleta Sill