

Rennick Blasts 299 In Continental League

299 GAME. Bob Rennick, bowling on the Laurel Plaza Liquor team in the Men's Continental League at Fair Lanes Laurel pulled down a 299 game in February. Bob socked seven-in-a-row into the 1-3 pocket, went Brooklyn for one, then came back for three more on the right side. His 12th ball went in light and left the 2-pin. He finished the series with 172-192. His ball was only two weeks old. Bob has been bowling for 15 years, starting in Japan with the Department of Defense. His previous high game was a 279 and his highest set is 693.
