

---

Weyand bests Wallace to win PBA senior regional at U.S. Bowling

Springfield's Jim Weyand defeated Larry Wallace of Manassas 248-193 in the deciding contest of the PBA South Region Alexandria, Va., Senior Open Nov. 28 at U.S. Bowling to earn the $1,500 top prize. Wallace settled for $800.

Weyand, who averaged 207.11 for 18 games, advanced to the title match in the stepladder finals by conquering in succession Edward Buco, Berlin, Md. (3-2), Guppy Troup, Taylorsville, N.C. (2-1), and Richard Holmes, Luray, Va. (1-0). Meanwhile, Wallace, an NCABA Hall of Fame member, reached the championship match by defeating Dennis Cooper, Hampton, Va. (3-0), Sam Perrotta, Lincoln Park, N.J. (2-1), and Don Patterson, Knoxville, Tenn. (1-0).

Among area players, Holmes placed fourth and earned $700, while Hall of Famer Larry O'Neill finished 12th and collected $450—the same amount as Allen Morrow of Stafford, Va., who placed 16th.

Pete Gunn of Stafford, who finished 29th, earned one of the two $250 "Super Senior" bonuses awarded for those age 60 and over.

Additional area bowlers who participated included No. 17, Colin Gilyeat, Waldorf; 23, Ronald Smith, Clinton; 24, Donny Carr, Hyattsville; 26, Greg Wilhelm, Stafford; 27, Greg Goetz, D.C.; 30, Waver Sneed, Woodbridge; 31, William Slater, Springdale, Md.; 32, Frank Gallo Jr., Lanham; 33, Donald Evans, Springfield; 35, George Ennis, California, Md.; 37, Scott Leonard, Herndon; 42, Vincent Mullally, Sterling; 43, Hollis McMullen, Rockville; 45, Johnie Peak Sr., Hyattsville; 46, Eddie Blocker Jr., Suitland; and 47, Berlin Myers, Suitland.