Top Eight Survive 1st Matchplay Event THESE PLAYERS ADVANCE TO THE 'GREAT 48'

One hundred twenty eight entered the first ever Mini Matchplay Tournament. 32 players cashed on the first day. The top eight advanced to the 'Great 48' and will cash for a minimum of $1000 each, and one may win the huge $25,000 top prize with a chance for $50,000.

The lure of matchplay is evident and simple - anyone can beat anyone in a one-game match. It's nerve-racking for the players and exciting for the fans.

Saturday night, some really great bowlers demonstrated why they have the reputation as some of the best megabuck bowlers in the world, and when the field got down to the top 16, it really got exciting.

In the round of 16, two bowling giants fought it out on lanes 5 and 6. Brian Boghosian, Agawam, MA narrowly defeated Paul Renteria, Henderson, NV 238-234. On lanes 25-26, Russ Wilson, Wichita, KS defeated Australian Jason Belamonte 227-220. On 29-30, 'Mr 900' Jerry Sonnenfeld, Sioux Falls, SD defeated Andrew Cain, Tempe, AZ 211-184. On 33-34, former Mini Eliminator Champion Derek Sapp, Keokuk, IA defeated Sweden's Mats Olsson 236-163.

Bo Goergen, Midland, MI beat Robert Andersson, Gothenburg, Sweden 235-190 on lanes 21-22. On lanes 9-10 Bill Webb, Enfield, CT struck at will to defeat Carl Fietek, Eden Prairie, MN 258-215. Dave Guinden, W. Seneca, NY made the top 8 by defeating Robert Piroozshad, Brooklyn, NY 210-160 on lanes 13-14, and another close match on 17-18 sent Kurt Neish to the top eight. Neish, Wakeeney, KS beat Robert Shank, Fort Wayne, IN 216-213.

Eight are in - 40 more will emerge in the next five days. At 9:00 a.m. Friday, the Great 48 will face off, and we can't wait! It's going to be a very exciting day!

SATURDAY'S TOP EIGHT: Derek Sapp, Brian Boghosian, Bo Goergen, Dave Guinden, Bill Webb, Kurt Neish, Jeremy Sonnenfeld, Russ Wilson
