Regehr Sweeps Brunswick Shootout Skins Game For $15,000

Brunswick Product Specialist Ron Bragg congratulates Ed Regehr

Old Brunswick bowling balls never die - they just keep on winning. Ed Regehr, Hesperia, CA in the 205 and under division, won all $15,000 available in the Brunswick Shootout Skins Game Saturday night, and he did it with a 10-year-old Brunswick Walter Ray Williams MVP bowling ball at the beautiful Orleans Bowling Center.

Regehr made eight strikes out of eleven shots in the game, and won three 'skins' worth $6,500, $4,500 and $4000. He struck when none of his opponents did in frames five and eight for the first two skins, then got an eight count for the third when he and Mike Lim were the only two left in overtime. Lim, Eldorado Hills, CA in the senior division, got a seven count in the final frame, and Regehr won the final $4000 leaving the 3-10 for his eight count.

"This is amazing," said Regehr. "I've been struggling all week. I had to bowl six squads to make the finals. This is great!" He may use part of his winnings to buy some new Brunswick balls.

Regehr's opponents in the skins game were Lim, Joe Merrill, Boulder City, NV in the 40-49 division and Ray Smarsh, Old Bridge, NJ and Daniel Falconi, Mexico City in the 39 and under division. Falconi was the 2003 Brunswick Shootout Champion, when he won $10,000. Regehr was also in the top five last year and won $3000. Lim, Merrill, Smarsh and Falconi failed to win any skins, but earned $1000 each for making the top five.

The 2004 Brunswick Shootout drew a record 357 entries and paid out over $100,000 in cash and prizes.
