

FIXES

Scott Sekely

A photograph of Sports Plus/Carmen Don staffer Scott Sekely was inadvertently left out of the pro shop's advertisement last issue (page 13). To compound matters, Sekely reportedly was the first person associated with the shop to see the ad, leaving him to wonder if a most unpleasant holiday message was being delivered. Colleague Jerry Francomano, who provided BOWL Magazine with Sekely's photo, later assured him a mistake had occurred and that no message had been sent.
