SHERRILL R. SMITH

It's an understatement to say that Sherrill R. Smith is an active woman. She hikes, bikes, runs marathons (just completing her eighth Marine Corps Marathon, by the way), and even rides her own motorcycle. A bowler for four years, she now competes in the Thursday Trios at AMF Alexandria after earlier participating in leagues at Potomac Lanes and Andrews Air Force Base Lanes.

All of those activities are performed outside of an equally busy work schedule. She has served as a full-time medical billing specialist with Capitol Cardiology Associates at Doctors Community Hospital in Lanham since 1984, and in recent years has taken up two other positions—a Realtor with Weichert Realtors, and owner of Access Sports for Her, which offers a complete line of sports merchandise for active females (see page 5).

After leaving the hospital and before heading out to take photos of properties for some clients, Ms. Smith took a few moments from her relentless schedule to stop by the NCAUSBCA office and let us know of some of her favorites.
