

TIM COLLEY

BIRTHDATE: September 21, 1974.

RESIDENCE: Alexandria, Virginia.

MARITAL STATUS: Single—and dating!

EDUCATION: 1992 graduate of Mt. Vernon High

CURRENT JOB: Technician/installer for American Energy Restaurant Equipment.

EARLIEST BOWLING MEMORY: At age 12, I bowled in a league with my twin brother and two sisters at Alexandria Bowling Center.

2000-2001 LEAGUES/AVERAGES: Bowl America Duke Mixed Classic (215 average) and Falls Church Commercial (210).

MOST RECENT BOWLING ACCOMPLISHMENT: Bowling back-to-back 800 series last January in winning the Apple Capital Tournament in Winchester, Va.

HIGH GAME/SERIES: Nine sanctioned 300 games / 826 series.

TOURNAMENT TITLES: 2001 Apple Capital / Tournament Concepts / 1993 NCABA Scratch All Events / 2001 NCABA Scratch Team.

NUMBER OF BOWLING BALLS I CURRENTLY OWN: 150—they're all at the house!

BEST PART OF MY GAME: The power of my game and ball speed.

WORST PART OF MY GAME: My occasional lack of concentration on spare conversions.

GREATEST BOWLING MOMENT: My first 300 game at age 16 at Alexandria Bowling Center in 1991.

WORST OR MOST EMBARRASSING BOWLING MOMENT: Most recently, it would be gagging after 18 strikes in a row—last nine and first nine—and needing a mark in the tenth frame for an 800 series in the team event of the 2001 NCABA Championship Tournament at Laurel. I missed the 3-10 baby split and finished with a 791 series.

BEST TACTIC I USE TO HANDLE PRESSURE: Think positive things—nothing negative.

ALL-TIME FAVORITE BOWLER (WHY?): Pete Weber. He has intensity on every shot.

WHEN I WATCH BOWLING ON TV, I WANT TO SEE THESE FIVE PROS: Rudy Kasimakis, Jimmy Keeth, Kelly Coffman, Pete Weber, and Norm Duke. They are the most exciting players.

LOCAL BOWLERS I MOST ADMIRE: C.J. Batten and Mike Whorton. They're good friends, and they know how to play for the money.

SPARE-SHOOTER RATING (10 best – 1 worst): Probably a 7.

SPARE COMBINATION I DON'T WANT TO SEE IN THE 10TH FRAME: The 3-10 baby split!

IMPORTANCE OF BOWLING IN MY LIFE (10 most – 1 least): Five years ago, I would have been a 9½. Today, I have so much more going on in my life that it is between 6 and 7.

THE THING I LEAST UNDERSTAND ABOUT BOWLING: Why so many people try to do it for a living—locally and/or professionally when there's so little money to go around.

INTERESTS OUTSIDE OF BOWLING: Cards (poker), hanging out with friends, working out at the gym, dieting, and working 45-50 hours each week.

FAVORITE MEAL: Grilled chicken.

FAVORITE BEVERAGE: Iced tea with lemon but no sugar.

FAVORITE ICE CREAM FLAVOR: Fat-free vanilla.

FAVORITE TV SHOW: "Survivor."

FAVORITE MOVIES: Rounders and Private Parts.

FAVORITE NON-BOWLING MAGAZINE: People. I love Hollywood, I love celebrities. I'm into Hollywood gossip.

FAVORITE FAST FOOD OUTLET: Subway.

FAVORITE VACATION SPOT: Las Vegas.

FAVORITE WEB SITE: cleandishes.com (my company's site) and caribsports.com (online gambling).

MOST PRIZED POSSESSION: My 300 game ring earned at Hanover, Pa., in 1996 on my grandfather's birthday. He meant the world to me.

NICKNAME: People sometimes call me "Hoss."

MY CD COLLECTION INCLUDES: Guns N' Roses and Motley Crue.

RECENT NON-BOWLING ACCOMPLISHMENT OF WHICH I'M MOST PROUD: Consistent promotions at work in the past year.

ONE THING I'D OUTLAW AT A BOWLING CENTER: Whining.

PRODUCT FOR WHICH I'D LIKE TO BE SPOKESMAN: Howard Stern's web site. I'm a huge fan.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION I CAN NEVER KEEP: Get a serious, deep dark tan.

TASK I HATE TO DO: Mow the grass.

ONE FAMOUS ATHLETE I'D PAY TO SEE COMPETE: Mark McGwire.

MINI-BIO, from page 11

THREE FAMOUS PEOPLE (LIVING OR DEAD) I'D INVITE TO MY HOME FOR DINNER: Howard Stern, comedian Tom Green of MTV, and Axel Rose.

PET PEEVE: Selfishness—a “me, me, me” type of person.

ONE WORD THAT BEST DESCRIBES ME: Funny.

ONE THING NOBODY KNOWS ABOUT ME: How wide-ranging my sense of humor really is.

PEOPLE IN HIGH SCHOOL THOUGHT: I didn't really socialize and hang out with people in my class—which was somewhat true.

BIGGEST PERSONAL REGRET (IF ONLY I HAD DONE THIS): Not going to college.

BIGGEST PERSONAL FAILURE: Past relationships.

NOBODY KNOWS I'M GOOD AT: Doing standup comedy.

BIGGEST SURPRISE: How far I've come along in my career in the past five years.

I INDULGE MYSELF BY: Going gambling in Atlantic City with a group of friends.

ONE THING I'D CHANGE ABOUT MYSELF: My impatience with poor drivers.

IMMEDIATE BOWLING GOAL: Perform well in megabuck tournaments.

ULTIMATE BOWLING GOAL: Win the PBA National Championship.

THE ONE THING I'VE LEARNED: You can't take life too seriously.

THREE THINGS I'D TAKE TO A DESERT ISLAND: A CD player with CDs, a computer, and a female companion.

PARTICULAR TALENT I WISH I HAD: I'd like to play baseball a lot better.

IF I COULD BE GRANTED ONE WISH: To be a millionaire tomorrow.

WHEN I GET AWAY FROM IT ALL: I run laps around the school track.

LIFE GOALS: Married with kids—I'm not sure how many—and financially secure, with as few worries as possible.

MOTTO I LIVE BY: There's comedy behind everything.
