Bowl America Gaithersburg • March 22, 2015

180 AVERAGE AND ABOVE DIVISION

Conner Kolessides all but seals his victory over top seed Jarrett DeFalco with his fifth consecutive strike in the ninth frame of the championship contest. Final score: 247-222. The "T of C" win was the second in three years for Kolessides.

A key to victory for Kolessides was solving Lane 4, which frequently baffled him in his earlier stepladder matches.

180 AVERAGE AND ABOVE DIVISION

Defending champion and top seed Jarrett DeFalco, who rolled a perfect game and averaged 251.5 in the six-game qualifier, started the title match with a four-bagger. However, a 4-6 split in the fifth frame opened for door for Conner Kolessides, who responded with five consecutive strikes en route to victory.

During his semifinal match against Conner Kolessides, second seed Anthony Daniels II applies some pressure with a rack-ripping strike. Nevertheless, Kolessides narrowly escaped with a 202-200 victory.

UNDER 180 AVERAGE DIVISION

Following his runner-up finish in this year's Invitational, top seed Diamante Winters cruised to victory in the Under 180 Average division with a 245-200 win over Nick Nanalig in the deciding contest. The champion averaged 211.5 in the six-game qualifier, then tossed three of the top four match play scores in his division with games of 238, 258, and 268.

UNDER 180 AVERAGE DIVISION

Third seed Nick Nanalig, the only bowler in the stepladder competition to use the two-handed “shovel” delivery (below), won matches against Ricardo Peterson 196-180 and Nathan Oakley 224-149 to earn the right to face Diamante in the championship match.

UNDER 180 AVERAGE DIVISION

It was a rough ending for second seed Nathan Oakley, who appears to be searching for answers in his match with Nick Nanalig.

Fourth seed Ricardo Peterson watches his chances of victory against Nick Nanalig disappear when his first ball in the 10th frame fails to stay on the lane.
